THE BATTERED BARY

Articles are appearing in medical journals on parents who inflict physical abuse on their children. It is a sad commentary on the behavior of some fathers and mothers but such brutalities do occur. In some instances, the baby is injured permanently or killed.

A baby covered with bruises was admitted to one of our children's hospitals. The tyke was poorly nourished, obviously neglected, and cried when moved. The mother explained that the infant had fallen from the bed. When the physician inquired about the multiple areas of discoloration, he was told that the boy bruised easily and was always covered with black and blue

On the surface, the explanation sounded satisfactory but actually this was another battered baby X-rays revealed a few broken bones in various stages of healing. In addition, the bruises disappeared while the tot was hospitalized and no new black and blue spots developed. But the family stood pat on their story. There was presumptive evidence that the child had been neglected and mistreated. The little victim was too young to talk and the adults would not admit guilt. The situation is difficult for the physician so far as making accusations and bringing the case to the attention of the proper authorities.

On the other hand, the problem is known to most hospitals and district attorneys. The increasing number of reports by physicians indicates something is to be done about it. The solution calls for teamwork by the medical profession, public protective agencies. and the police department.

do unto others as you would

... She came from God the Father to accomplish good for all; to persuade people to a better way of life. Her steeple is high, her influence reaches far. Men know she holds comfort for believers and direction for those lost in sin. She is where a lot of people go as a last resort. Oh, that all men might first, come by way of His church for renewed hope, divine courage and greater strength. Over nineteen hundred years ago, God opened her doors to all men regardless of race, color or creed. He raised the cross, on which Jesus died, atop her steeple with a prayer that men might never commit blasphemy against His name. — Then, "come let us go into the house of the Lord." Here, it is always time to worship the God I serve...for I am His church.

or find his own faith without really becoming identified with igious faith Others have called this the age f analysis with the resulting belief that we should have positive knowledge about everything that we hold, and those things that cannot be proved or supported by dence should be cast off.

What such people are trying to however, is to confine their gious faith to a test tube or hat one could find certain things favorable in every religion of the world. No religion is totally badthat does not mean that they prolaim the truth-though they all contain elements of truth.

Christianity differs from every other world religion in a number of ways. First of all, it is the only religion that was announced far advance. The coming of Jesus into the world was predicted many centuries before He came, and enough detail was included in these predictions so that the chances of making a mistake vere reduced to nothing. Second-Christianity is more than an logy or a system of ethics. It a way of redemption for the sinner, and it is offered to m on the basis of Christ's merit ot the merit of the individual very honest man will admit that some area be has done wrong he has failed, he has made his mistakes. Other world religions demand things of their adherents that they cannot fulfill. Christianity alone presents a message to the fallen man, to man as he is, asking him only to acknowledge and to trust in Christ the Savior who has been offered. The Bible says, Ephesians 2:8,9, that a man is saved by grace, not by works Right here is the uniqueness of the Christian faith. You must go to the very heart of it and then you will see how vastly if differs from other world religions, and you will recognize what Paul Johnson, the Boston University psychologist said when he made the comment, "Christianity pos sesses everything.

But its most unique aspect is the Resurrection - Christ is not in a grave - He is alive! No other religion claims this.

Christ and find peace and happiness in Him. But, being human, I slip at times. I get angry, I have evil thoughts, and I say things I shouldn't say. The thing that troubles me is: am I ever truly with God if I have to bring myself back to Him so often? -E. T.

ANSWER: I once knew a man who was overconcerned about his health. He was alive, but he carried a thermometer with him, and took his temperature every day. Then, he would take his watch out and count his pulse and respiration. He was never really sick, though he expected to be at any moment.

You say you have accepted Christ. That is the greatest thing that can happen to a person to inherit eternal life through Him. None of us have absolute perfection. The best of us are unworthy of His grace. But we are not to be overconcerned about our feel ings, -and spend valuable time takings, and spend valuable time taking our spiritual temperature. We are servants of the most high God. We are ambassadors for Christ. We have a world in crises that needs our help. Don't get the paralysis of analysis and hinder yourself from letting your light shine for Him.

Soundstriper May Revolutionize Home Movies

By BART KINCH United Press International Argus Incorporated, the Chicago

manufacturer of movie and still troducing the 1963 Argus line. First to reach the shelves of camera stores will be four new movie cameras and the Argus-Syntronic Soundstriper, according to Herbert R. Leopold, company

The Soundstriper, Leopold said, revolutionizes the application of a magnetic sound stripe to home movie film at a cost of about 16 cent per foot of film.

The unit is expected to put dealers into the business of soundstriping customers' home movie film and should give greater impetus to sound home movies. In addition to the soundstriper are four Argus 8mm movie cameras. The Automatic 8 has a fully automatic electric eye system and a fast f-1.8 lens. The camera is powered electrically by four compact penlight batteries and the body is of diecast aluminum construction.

The M4 Zoom electric eye 8mm camera also utilizes the penlight battery power operation for both shooting and operating the zoom lens. There is no hand winding and the new M4 power drive lock lets the photographer appear in his own movies.

The f-1.9 zoom lens can be manually controlled or set for automatic operation through its 10 to 27mm range.

The newest addition to the expanding Argus home movie line s the Cinemax 8EE power-zoom 8mm movie camera. The Cinemax offers push button power operation; a two speed power-zoom focusing lens, automatic electric eye, special reflex viewfinder and variable filming speed control.

The 10-element f-1.8 lens assures critically sharp pictures and operates electrically from 12mm to

Finally, the Cinemax 85-E automatic 8mm movie camera recently introduced by the company boasts a 5:1 ration mom lens with full range from 8.5 to 42.5mm. The very fast f-1.6 lens can be focused from infinity down to three feet. A cadmium sulfide cell provides the automatic exposure at all fiim and shutter speeds and is the hearts of the fully automatic electric eye system. The lens also can be set manually if desired.

Prices on the new cameras range from $49.96 to $229.95.

The Zeiss Ikon Division of Carl Zeiss, Inc., had reduced the price of the popular Contaflex Super 35mm camera from $219 to $189.50.

The Contaflex pioneered the single-lens reflex camera field and is one of the most widely used SLR cameras in the world.

Russia Will Be Questioned About Troops in Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI) - With Soviet offensive missiles and bombers apparently out of Cuba, the United States is now expected to question Russia on its several thousand troops still on the island.

The Pentagon announced Thursday that Russian ships carrying 42 IL28 jet bombers - the total number the Russians said were in Cuba-had been sighted off the Cuban coast. The announcement came on the 20th day after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev promised to get the bombers out within 30 days.

With the removal of the missiles and bombers Russia is expected to claim that it has lived up to its part of the bargain and demand the United States give formal assurances against an invasion of Cuba.

But U.S. officials maintain Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has still not carried out all pledges of his exchange of letters with President Kennedy. There has been no agreement for United Nations verification of the removal of weapons or assurances against their reentry which the letters called for.

Though Soviet military person nel were never included in Presi-dent Kennedy's list of "offensive" military forces in Cuba, the administration apparently plans to raise the issue with Russia of their continued presence there.

Estimates of the number of Soviet military personnel which entered Cuba during the offensive weapons buildup run as high as 13,000. These include missile tech-nicians and laborers, for the Rus-sians allowed the Cubaas to do none of the work on construction of missile sites-not even ditch-ly fashionable. It has lost the common person." So says Pfc Ress Ward of Ft Carson, a professional artist.

"Art is going downhill today. he continued. "But it is like a ski slope-we are due for an upturn. There are a few individuals who are finding true art-art containing fantasy, reality and honesty regardless of personal style-art in which the artist does not take himself too seriously.

Ward, a native of Aberdeen. S.D., painted a 160-foot mural of the automobile's progress for the Rapid City, S.D., Horseless Carriage Museum. He has sold paintings to private collectors for as little as $1 and as much as $700.

At Carson a blank wall is a challenge to Ward. The mess hall and day room of his unit-Battery B, 1st Battalion, 19th Artilleryare alive with his landscapes and depictions of Army life. As his media he uses truck enamel, barracks paint and anything else that's handy

Ward advocates a more democratic approach to art. Art shows should have no prizes and no juries, he said. Artists should rent a space on a wall and let the public judge what it likes.

He said this would speed up the evolution of artistic style and eliminate such difficulties as the impressionists encountered breaking through an outmoded system.

Cameras and equipment have been automated, mechanized and improved to a degree far removed from the simple box camera era that we started from.

someone breaks into these end-less cycles and announces: "The latest improvement! We're back to the box camera. . . it's so simple and inexpensive? No widgits, from a 35mm slide from 10 feet go again? no gidgits, no extras!"

Well, folks, that's what has happened in the 35mm slide projector field right now

Do you realize the tremendous wizardry that has taken place in improvements and electronic slide projectors these past few years? In the beginning we pushed the slides, one by one, into a simple machine

Then came the first big improvement: the single slides were herded into trays. Then the trays were mechanized. Then they were automated. Then came space-age wonders of remote control - remote focusing and automatic progression, forwards or backwards, at selected intervals. The most recent wonder has been the addation of a magnetic sound track on each 35mm slide.

Of course, with each improvement the price of the projector was hiked a bit higher. Needless to say, at various stages of these improvements, the price soared out of reach for some slide fans
